THE TOBY CENTERS

Offering Visitation and Reunification Services

WHAT:

- Toby Center Child Access Services offer parents and children a safe, neutral and comfortable location for child transfer and supervised access/visitation.
- When appropriate, parents and children will enjoy our locations, including museums, parks, restaurants, malls, recreation areas!
- Our monitors are trained and come from different fields as education or psychology. They are all respectful, compassionate and vigilant. Many are grandparents or divorced parents themselves
- Monitors will document the sessions. All records are available to both parties. Call the Program Coordinator or Executive Director for details.

WHO:

- Any parent, guardian or other family member with or without court orders seeking a neutral, family friendly venue for child transfer and supervised child access/visitation.

WHY:

- Compliance with child support obligations is linked to quality of child access.
- Our family friendly supervised visitation reduces the emotional conflict between parents and children.
- Expedites the transition to a more natural relationship between parents and children.

WHEN:

- Supervised Visitation times are flexible with advanced notice.
- Weekends and weekday sessions are available.
- Child transfers are available by appointment.
