

TOBY CENTER VIDEO TRAINING

Name _____ Date _____

Hello! Welcome aboard to Team Toby! We are delighted to have you join with us to improve child outcomes when parents separate. Your experience and your field professionalism will help determine child custody determinations. This is an important role. Our Regional Managers can offer you advice and feedback with any case questions you may have. Thank you for your joining with us!

INSTRUCTIONS FOR YOUR VIDEO TRAINING

- I. For our records, you will need to sign this disclosure that you have viewed all the videos as requirement for training as a supervised visitation Family Monitor.
- II. Please view the training videos in the link at the top of the questionnaire attached.
- III. Complete the attached questionnaires for each video. You will also be asked to demonstrate you have studied these training videos by completing the exercise for each video also below.

Thank you so much! We appreciate your learning with us, your professionalism and your earnest desire to build human service credentials by serving as a Family Monitor with the Toby Center!

Sincerely,

Mark

Dr. Mark Roseman, CEO

ATTESTATION: I understand that my viewing of the training videos provided by the Toby Center provide an orientation to family court expectations and the Supreme Court of Florida's guidelines on Supervised Visitation. These videos constitute half of my classroom training of 12 hours. Below is my understanding of the training video content and its usefulness in my professional capacity as a Toby Center Family Monitor. My answers below demonstrate this understanding for each video. I sign this Attestation to confirm to the Toby Center that I have completed the viewing of these videos which I now will help me to more completely understand a) the responsibilities of being a Family Monitor and b) the challenges of working with families in conflict and or otherwise requiring supervised visitation.
