DR. MARK ROSEMAN, BIO

'Dr. Mark' is an author, international speaker and child custody expert with specialization in high conflict personality and parental alienation. He began his field work in 1998, as Assistant Director for Child Access in Washington, DC with the Children's Rights Council serving with its founder, David L. Levy, Esq.

Dr. Roseman founded The Toby Center for Family Transitions in 2010, now a leading child visitation and child reunification agency based in Florida providing supervised visitation, family therapy and mediation – all to mitigate high conflict child custody matters and to improved child outcomes when parents separate.

Publisher of Contemporary Family Magazine, flagship of Preserving Family Ties Media, LLC, Dr. Roseman is an experienced mediator, family educator and consultant on family and social issues. He serves on the Editorial Advisory Board of the American Journal of Family Therapy and is author of Preserving Family Ties, An Authoritative Guide to Understanding Divorce and Child Custody (WestBow Press, 2018). Leading authorities in the field have said about this book:

"The summary of the research is excellent and easy to understand." (Dr. Douglas Darnall, author, Divorce Casualties: Understanding Parental Alienation)

"No matter how much you think you know about divorce and how to lessen its impacts, you will learn something here." (Dr. Donald A. Gordon, Center for Divorce Education and Professor Emeritus, Ohio University)

Dr. Roseman is author of dozens of articles and has published in American Journal of Family Law, NYPD BLUE, Huffington Post, and has been read in hundreds of newspapers when writing for the Tribune Syndicate (2005-2009).

'Ask Dr. Mark' is his Q&A for targeted parents and alienated children. In 2021, Dr. Mark introduced the podcast, CF DIGITAL! offering interviews with family professionals across disciplines and policymakers from around the world. Visit
